11:30 / MOZART'S REQUIEM DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH

A collaboration between the Canticum Novum Choir, resident at the Moederkerk Stellenbosch, and the Stellenbosch University Symphony Orchestra, with soloists Elsa Coetzee, Christine Bam, Riaan Oosthuizen and Riaan le Roux and under the baton of Louis van der Walt. Mozart's Requiem, although less than an hour long, is regarded as one of the most profound beacons of the entire classical music repertoire. Its sublime beauty, tangible pathos and deeply moving undertones characterize its otherwise classical harmonic language. Mozart, a very sick man towards the end of his life, is often seen to have been composing the Requiem for himself and the mysterious circumstances under which he was writing the Requiem seem to indicate that he may have been commissioned to write it by his arch rival Antonio Salieri. Mozart died before he could finish the work and the world has come to know it as his, and possibly his greatest. It was completed by his pupil Franz Xaver Süssmayr.
